Sir:

REQUEST FOR REFUND

A Response to Notice of Incomplete Reply was filed in the above-referenced patent application on March 19, 2001. In that Response, Applicants traversed the allegation that the previous response to the Notice to File Missing Parts was incomplete. A copy of the Response is enclosed herewith along with a copy of the date stamped postcard receipt. The Notice to File Missing Parts (copy enclosed) did not include a request to supply an abstract in this application.

Therefore, the Notice of Incomplete Reply must be treated as a new Notice to File Missing Parts with a renewed two month reply period. A charge of $460.00 was charged to Deposit Account No. 23-3000 for a three month extension. Since a three month extension was not due, it is requested that a refund of $460.00 be credited to Deposit Account No. 23-3000.

If there are any questions, please contact the undersigned at the telephone number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,

RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF INCOMPLETE REPLY

Box MISSING PARTS
Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

In response to the Notice of Incomplete Reply mailed February 28, 2002, Applicants' counsel attaches and files herewith an Abstract of the Disclosure. Applicants traverse the allegation that the previous response to the Notice to File Missing Parts mailed October 24, 2001 was incomplete. In this regard, Applicants' response of December 21, 2001 fulfilled all requirements made in the Notice to File Missing Parts, i.e., the filing of an executed Declaration, a fee of $65.00, and the claims commencing on a separate sheet. The requirement for an Abstract was not made by the Patent Office in the Notice to File Missing Parts. Therefore, as to the Notice to File Missing Parts and the requirement made in that paper, Applicants fully complied in their initial response. Therefore, the Notice of Incomplete Reply mailed on February 28, 2002 is, in fact, a new Notice to File Missing Parts and, therefore, Applicants should have been given a new two month time period in which to respond. No extension of time should be required for this response. Applicants could not reply to a request which was not made in the initial Notice to File Missing Parts but is now responding to that requirement as now set forth, for the first time, in the Notice of Incomplete Reply.

A copy of the Notice of Incomplete Reply mailed on February 28, 2002 is included herewith.

If there is any additional matter that may be resolved by telephone or fax, please contact the undersigned at the telephone number listed below.

Applicants believe that no other fees are due in connection with this response. However, if such petition is due or any fees are necessary, the Commissioner may consider this to be a request for such and charge any necessary fees to deposit account 23-3000.

Respectfully submitted,
WOOD, HERRON & EVANS, L.L.P.

ELECTRONIC TEXT COMMUNICATION SYSTEM

Abstract of the Disclosure

An electronic data transmission device includes an electronic text recording device which records a text which is written or spoken in a first language and transforms the text into electronic data. An electronic data translation device is coupled with a text recording device and includes a data processing system and a translation program having a data bank with saved grammatical and vocabulary information. The data processing system translates the electronic data by way of the data processing system, and according to the grammatical and vocabulary information, into second electronic data which represents the recorded text in the second language. An electronic text reproduction device is coupled with the data translation device and reproduces the second electronic data as written and/or spoken text.
